 - b. the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
 - c. the Controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
 - d. the data subject has objected to processing pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the Controller override those of the data subject.

2. Where processing has been restricted under Clause 16, such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with the data subject's consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State. A data subject who has obtained restriction of processing shall be informed by the Controller before the restriction of processing is lifted.

E. PORTABILITY OF DATA

1. The data subject shall have the right to receive the personal data concerning him or her, which he or she has provided to the Controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the Controller to which the personal data have been provided, where the processing is based on consent or on a contract and the processing is carried out by automated means.
2. In exercising his or her right to data portability as stated above, the data subject shall have the right to have the personal data transmitted directly from one Controller to another, where technically feasible.
3. The data subject shall have the right not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects concerning him or her or similarly significantly affects him or her.

F. OBJECTION

1. The data subject shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her which is based Clause 6(1)(e) or (f) of Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council (EU) no. 2016/679 of 27 April 2016, including profiling based on those provisions.
2. The Controller shall no longer process the personal data unless the Controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

3. Where personal data are processed for direct marketing purposes, the data subject shall have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing. Where the data subject objects to processing for direct marketing purposes, the personal data shall no longer be processed for such purposes.

G. EXERCISING OF RIGHTS

The exercising of the aforementioned rights shall be based on a request submitted to the Controller in writing or by email to promotions@wec24.pl. The same email address may be used for submitting any questions regarding data subject's rights. The Controller shall use his best efforts to explain such rights in a clear and easy way and enable data subject to exercise such rights.

H. COMPLAINT

Every data subject shall have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State of his or her habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement if the data subject considers that the processing of personal data relating to him or her infringes this Regulation. Such complaint may be lodged with the Polish Supervisory Authority i.e. the President of the Data Protection Authority (pl. Urząd Ochrony Danych Osobowych), address: ul. Stawki 2, 00-193 Warsaw.

I. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. The Controller does not make decisions solely in an automated manner or use personal data for profiling.
2. The data subject's rights, described in detail herein, result from generally applicable provisions of law and the provisions hereof shall not restrict such rights in any manner.
3. The extent to which the data subject can exercise his/her rights may be limited by law, in particular on grounds of other rights and freedoms of other persons or on grounds of public interest.
4. In order to ensure a high level of personal data protection, the Controller shall take regular actions aimed at reviewing this privacy policy and amending it if there is a change in the extent of personal data processed or in the technology of personal data processing or in the applicable provisions of law or in the guidelines for the application of such provisions of law.
